

Sergeant James F. Borsilli

Class of 1982

Inducted November 21, 2013

- 2006 Graduated from Northwestern University, Center for Public Safety, School of Police Staff and Command. Sgt. Borsilli received numerous letters of thanks and commendation from the city of Darien, its citizens and surrounding police departments. Sgt. Borsilli passed away February 5, 2012 having faithfully served for 24 years. The City of Darien has retired his badge #301 to honor his service and dedication to duty and his willingness to sacrifice for the good of the City and its citizens.
- 2002 Promoted to sergeant and served as a Shift Supervisor, provided oversight to the department's Auxiliary Police section and served as a department union representative.
- 1988 Sgt. Borsilli joined the Darien Police Department and graduated from the Police Training Institute at the University of Illinois in 1988. As a police officer he served the community as a field training officer and as an evidence technician before serving for two years in the Detective Division.
- 1986 Attended Benedictine University graduating with a Bachelor of Arts.
- 1982 Graduated from Hinsdale South High School.

Quote

“Go out into the world and make something of yourself, you and your family can be proud of. Live each day to its fullest, for none of us know how many days we will have.”