

Captain Scott Thomas Corwin
Class of 1995
Inducted November 17, 2011

- 1991-1995 Hinsdale South
Varsity Football 1993, 1994
Co-Captain 1994
Co-MVP 1994
All Conference, All Area, All Academic Teams
Varsity Hockey 1991-1995
Captain 1994-1995 season
- 1995-1999 United States Military Academy at West Point
Graduate Class of 1999
Commissioned as 2nd Lieutenant, United States Army
Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from West Point
- 1999-2004 Officer, United States Army
Master's Degree in Engineering Management at the University of Missouri-Rolla.
Received commission in Corps of Engineers U S Military Academy 1999.
A Company, 27th Engineer Battalion (Airborne), Fort Bragg, North Carolina.
Light Equipment Platoon Leader, Sapper Platoon Leader and Company Executive Officer. Deployed to Kosovo from November 2001 to May 2002.
Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri additional schooling, served as the Battalion Training Officer for the 27th Engineer Battalion. Upon assignment to the 92nd Engineer Battalion (Heavy) at Fort Stewart, Georgia, CPT Corwin was the Construction Officer for the Battalion
- Graduate of the Engineer Officer Basic Course, the Engineer Captain's Career Course, the Combined Arms Service Staff School, and the Sapper Leader's Course and the Jumpmaster Course.
Army Commendation Medal, the Army Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal, the Kosovo Campaign Medal, NATO Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal and the Senior Parachutist Badge.
- In addition to his military duties and preparing the battalion for deployment to Iraq at Fort Stewart, Scott answered an urgent call from the United Way to help save home of an elderly handicapped citizen in the Savannah area, who was on the verge of being evicted by authorities due to the dire condition of the home. Although Scott did not see the project's completion, the Engineers of the 92nd finished the project in honor of Scott.

"The hard right, not the easy wrong"